BETTER THAN GOLD!

PORTSMOUTH, July 9, 1851.

Mn. J. E. BOUSH—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hamptou's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years 1 Sufferd from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspepsia. From this dreadful maindy I suffered to such an extent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constipation of the bowles. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly all of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I refused to give it a trial, although persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and requested me to try it; after taking it a few times, it had a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now feel myself a new man, and in botter health than for years. I am certain the cure in my case was made by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have myself a new man, and in better health than for years. I am certain the cure in my case was hade by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been relieved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is above price; and from my cure, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my duty to recommend it to the suffering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the afflicted will cast aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bed that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we sak of the afflicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

EDITORS' CORRESPONDENCE.

Who is the Acting President? To the Editors of the American Telegraph.

GENTLEMEN: I perceive that Admiral Easby as not authorized you to deny the rumor, current over town, that he recently took it upon himself to act in the place of his excellent and fast-sticking friend, the President of the United States, by going up to the Presidential mansion, and opening and inspecting the President's private and public letters. It therefore, I presume, may be taken for granted that the aforesaid rumor is true.

Well, allowing it to be true, and allowing the President consents that his devoted friend, Admiral Easby, shall act as the President of the United States ad interim, or even from this time out, until the 4th of March, 1853, I am not sure but the country would be the gainer thereby— for, whatever else may be said of the brave old Admiral, everybody who knows him will concede that he has courage, boldness, and energy of character enough to act as a President ought to act in cases of emergency, like those which are now upon us. He would not shun responsibility, nor desert his post in the hour of difficulty, to go off popularity-hunting, in a region where noth-ing but a courteous reception could be expected. It is suggested that the locum tenens of the Ex-ecutive Chair would do well to publish the evidence that he is a naturalized American citizen, and then issue a proclamation to meet the ccasion which now imperiously calls for such paper of state.

But, perhaps, the publication of the evidence of naturalization would not be necessary, in as much as Mr. Secretary Stuart appointed the redoubtable Earl, SNAPE, all the way from Lonnon, to a clerkship in the Census Office. A. B. C.

Washington, August 29, 1851.

Camp Meeting in Fairfax County, Va. To the Editors of the American Telegraph.

GENTLEMEN: The camp meeting of the M. E. Church South broke up this morning, after a week of almost unmingled pleasure and joy to those who had repaired thither to engage in religious worship.

This place is peculiarly adapted to such meetngs-it being a skirt of land situated immediately upon one of the county roads, with only descent enough to pass off gradually the water that may flow during a rain, and thickly covered with large oak and chestnut trees, which give a dense shade during the entire day, wholly destitute of undergrowth, and which is also supplied with an abundance of excellent water. Here, too, stands a venerable-looking house of worship, which has been occupied almost from time immemorial as a preaching place by every denomination of Christians in this section of country, but which is, for the want of proper care and repair, fast going to decay. I tried hard to learn something of its history, but could not, there being no date or mark about it by which I could form any idea of the time at which it was creeted. And the only answer I received upon inquiring of the oldest persons I met with, who live in the neighborhood, was that it was an old house when they were children.

But to return to the meeting. It has been a arge one, there being over one hundred tents upon the ground, with a large number of ministers present, some of them from a distance, and among them some of the ablest in the Virginia conference. Every day has been characterized by solemnity and good order, and all present appeared to be united for the promo-tion of the great object for which they met together. Wednesday was a day of peculiar in-terest and solemnity. At eleven o'clock, a. m., the Rev. Mr. Roszell, of Alexandria, preached a sermon from the 46th chapter and 10th verse of Isaiah, which I will venture to say never was surpassed by any preacher in that section of country. For more than an hour and a half he held the large audience completely spell-bound by the power of his eloquence. At the conclusion of the sermon a collection amount-ing to over two hundred dollars was taken up for the benefit of missions to Africa.

At night there were over two hundred persons, white and colored, who participated in the solemn eremony of celebrating the Lord's Supper. But I have already said much more than I in-tended when I commenced this letter, and must conclude by remarking that it has resulted in great good, there being, in the opinion of many, a larger number of converts than was ever before at a camp-meeting at this place. Union Meeting-House, Aug. 29, 1851

PRINTERS AND EDITORS.—The Lynn News says a sensible thing in regard to a paltry species of editorial ambition, which unhappily is not yet entirely extinct in this neighborhood. "So far from using the name of editor as we have known it to be used," remarks the News, "we regard the name of printer to be far more honorable. It was one of the prettiest and most graceful acts of a very graceful man, when the editor of the Boston Post entered his name in the catalogue of the 'New Hampshire Festival' as printer. Many would have used the word editor, in full-face writing. It does one good, in these days when every other man, almost, is an editor-to say nothing of the host who travel in that assumed character-to read the newspapers of a half century ago, when communications were addressed to 'Mr. Printer.' It does not take much to be an editor; but to be a good printer is a distinction which it is indeed an honor to attain." We may add to We may add to this the well-known fact, that Benjamin Franklin styled himself "printer" to the day of his death.—Phila. City Item.

The best and most prosperous newspapers in the United States are and always have been conducted by printers. The National Intelligencer, the Boston Post, Baltimore American, Philadelphia Ledger, Saturday Courier, New York Tribune, Baltimore Sun, and hundreds of others well known to fame, might be enumerated. A very redoubtable personage, in writing to a Baltimore weekly paper from this city, a short time since, thought he had the means of demolishing a newspaper which he contemptuously declared was conducted by an association of printers. The attempt was laughed at, and the scribbling puppy pitied!

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

AND THE

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the last revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nasdons of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great British have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto-unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, is they occur, and learns the various conclusion-drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, vis:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBULGH REVIEW,
THE ROBTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "Sorth British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as hereforce issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imme-of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simils of the Edinburgh edition.

I am also granifed at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and can-not but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens.
